

9.1. Should consent of the copyright owner be required for all uses of copyrighted works to train AI models or only commercial uses?

Consent should be required for all uses of copyrighted works. Research often feeds into commercial activity, and some organizations are later sold/bought, even if they initially started as non-commercial.